

A Walk Through Psalm 107 – Part 3

- 1 Oh give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

Substantiation/Reason for giving thanks – the goodness and lovingkindness of God.
Temporal – this goodness and lovingkindness is eternal
So the beginning point of this Psalm is the eternal unchanging character and majesty of God.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary Locative/Implied Substantiation – the redeemed were in the grasp of the enemy the location is not specific in fact nebulous. The Lord is portrayed as He who saved from this situation/location. The implication is this redemptions should be acknowledged.

- 3 And gathered from the lands, From the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.

Continuation of the previous point – Locative – Particularization of from where the redeemed were gathered.
- 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert region; They did not find a way to an inhabited city.

Becoming more specific Locative Particularization – in the wilderness specifically the desert Problem: they could not find an inhabited city.
- 5 They were hungry and thirsty; Their soul fainted within them.

More expansion of their condition physically hungry and thirsty. Then – Locative – their internal condition was deteriorating.
- 6 Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He delivered them out of their distresses.

Temporal/Sequence/Effect – they cried out – in = locative in a sense they were situated, dwelling in a state of trouble. The Lord delivered them out of = locative again in a sense and based on the next verse physical reality...

A Walk Through Psalm 107 - Part 1

- 7 He led them also by a straight way, To go to an inhabited city.
- 8 Let them give thanks to the Lord for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!
- 9 For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, And the hungry soul He has filled with what is good.
- 10 There were those who dwelt in darkness and in the shadow of death, Prisoners
in misery and chains,
- 11 Because they had rebelled against the words of God
And spurned the counsel of the Most High.
- 12 Therefore He humbled their heart with labor; They stumbled and there was none to help.
- 13 Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He saved them out of their distresses.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death And broke their bands apart.
- 15 Let them give thanks to the Lord for His lovingkindness, And for His wonders to the sons of men!
- 16 For He has shattered gates of bronze And cut bars of iron asunder.
- 17 Fools, because of their rebellious way, And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.
- 18 Their soul abhorred all kinds of food, And they drew near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He saved them out of their distresses.

Instrumentation/Means – led by a straight way; there was no detour or side trip. “To” Purpose – the aim of the leading was “to” Locative – an inhabited city

Causation/Result – the psalmist states that the appropriate response to what the Lord has done is thankfulness.

Substantiation – this is interesting. Here the psalmist is substantiating thankfulness by echoing the solving of the problem in verse 5 – but he moves the argument from physical to spiritual. He equates the physical hunger and thirst in 5 to a spiritual hunger and thirst.
